Early returns indicate that there is growing interest in Korean films particularly in Asia, with Japan being the most important market.. The story is pretty deep in terms of love, loyalty, and revenge It is also quite lengthy.. As with last year, a North-Korean themed work dominated the theaters, with Park Chan-wook's Joint Security Area setting attendance records and placing itself in line to become the best-selling Korean film in history (as of year-end it will remain in second place just behind Shiri, however it is forecast to pass Kang Je-gyu's film in early January).
